Facts:

- NEURO2024, under the theme of "Deciphering the mind: Transcending borders for the future", provides a unique forum for researchers and members from all over the world who are contributing to the frontiers of neuroscience to gather in Fukuoka, and to create an opportunity to break barriers and make a better future in neuroscience research.
- English is an official language used at all sessions. We expect approximately 3,000 participants, including 300 people from overseas.
- NEURO2024 promotes interaction with relevant professional neuroscience societies in neighboring Asia-Pacific countries, the United States and Europe by organizing joint symposia and having a financial assistance program to cover travel costs.
- NEURO2024 aims at fostering young scientists and promoting collaboration across the globe and various scientific fields including clinical neuroscience.
- The Meeting will be held at Fukuoka Convention Center (<https://www.marinemesse.or.jp/eng/>).

Benefits:

- ✓ Travel Award winners will receive a partial support (190,000 JPY) and a free accommodation in Fukuoka for 4 nights (from July 23, a single room in a budget hotel).
- ✓ The meeting registration fee is waived.
- ✓ Travel Award winners are invited to the International Exchange Meeting for Young Researchers and a get-together party on the day before NEURO2024 to facilitate interaction among young researchers from abroad and Japan.
- ✓ Travel Award winners are also invited to a reception during NEURO2024 (if held).

Conditions:

- Recipients will receive the award at the meeting venue in Japanese yen.
- Awardees can choose their favorite place to stay at and make their own hotel reservation from July 23 (check-in) to July 27, (check-out; 4 nights total) will only be covered. Recipients must bear all expenses if they stay extra nights.
- "The International Exchange Meeting for Young Researchers" is a mandatory event. This meeting will be held on July 23 at around 17 o'clock. So please make sure to have sufficient time to travel from the airport to the venue.
- Persons who do not attend NEURO2024 and do not make a presentation will have their award revoked.
